Donations Assist Relief Organizations Working in Affected Areas of U.S. and the Caribbean

MELVILLE, N.Y., Nov. 10, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- In the aftermath of Hurricane Matthew, Henry Schein, Inc. (Nasdaq: HSIC) is responding to the medical and logistical needs of rebuilding communities by joining its Team Schein Members to donate more than $100,000 in cash and health care products to relief organizations working in impacted areas throughout the southeastern United States and the Caribbean.

Given the size and scale of the damage, the Henry Schein Cares Foundation, Inc.—an independent 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to increasing access to care throughout the world—opened the Henry Schein Cares Hurricane Matthew Disaster Relief Fund to raise money for relief efforts. Henry Schein, Inc. matched employee donations to the fund and also donated much-needed medical supplies (e.g. gloves, gauze, bandages, hand sanitizer, toothpaste and mouthwash, vitamins, and syringes) to relief organizations, bringing the total contribution to more than $100,000. Organizations receiving cash and product donations include AmeriCares, Catholic Medical Mission Board, Catholic Relief Services, Direct Relief International, Heart to Heart International, International Medical Corps, IsraAid, LDS Philanthropies, Lutheran World Relief, Inc., MAP International, MedShare, Partners in Health, and Project HOPE.

"In the wake of a natural disaster, it is essential that private industry work with non-governmental partners to ensure that care providers have the products and resources necessary to help affected people and communities get back on their feet as quickly as possible," said Stanley M. Bergman, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Henry Schein. "Emergency preparedness and disaster relief are key pillars of Henry Schein's commitment to corporate social responsibility, and I am pleased to know that our Team Schein Members share that dedication to giving back to the communities in which we live and work."

The company has also opened its toll-free Disaster Relief Hotline to help customers with operational, logistical, or financial issues as a result of the storm. Customers can call the hotline at 800-999-9729 from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. ET. Henry Schein has also supplied customers with a step-by-step disaster response guide to expedite the restoration of their business.
