

Henry Schein Opens Henry Schein Cares Foundation 2025 Relief Fund and Commits Up to $300,000 in Cash and Essential Health Care Supplies to Support the City of Los Angeles

January 14, 2025

MELVILLE, N.Y.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 14, 2025-- Henry Schein, Inc. (Nasdaq: HSIC) today announced the opening of the Henry Schein Cares Foundation 2025 Relief Fund to support the Los Angeles area fires. Contributions will support the provision of critical health care supplies and resources to help people impacted by the wildfires throughout the city.

The Company and Henry Schein Cares Foundation will donate an initial $25,000 each to support relief efforts and the Company will match Team Schein Member (TSM) contributions up to another $50,000, for a cash total of up to $150,000. The Company will also donate essential health care supplies up to an initial amount of $150,000 to its partner relief organizations operating on the ground, bringing Henry Schein's total commitment to as much as $300,000.

"The wildfires in Los Angeles are devastating to watch, and Team Schein stands in solidarity with everyone who has been affected as well as all the first responders and individuals who are committed to supporting relief efforts," said Stanley M. Bergman, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Henry Schein. "In response to this emergency, we will partner with trusted and long-standing relief and recovery charitable partners to ensure the availability of the critical supplies and resources required to provide health care within affected communities. Team Schein remains committed to helping health happen in light of this evolving situation."

Anyone who wishes to contribute to the 2025 Relief Fund can donate by visiting www.henryschein.com/foundationdonate and selecting "2025 Relief Fund" for the gift designation.
