

Henry Schein Animal Health Completes Acquisition Of Majority Interest In Equine Products Company SmartPak

July 1, 2014

MELVILLE, N.Y., July 1, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- Henry Schein, Inc. (NASDAQ: HSIC), the world's largest provider of health care products and services to office-based dental, animal health and medical practitioners, announced today that its U.S. Animal Health business, Henry Schein Animal Health, has completed its acquisition of an approximate 60% ownership position in SmartPak, the leading provider of equine supplements and horse supplies across the United States. This transaction was first announced on May 22, 2014.

As previously reported, SmartPak had sales in 2013 of approximately $105 million. Private equity firm Oak Hill Capital Partners and SmartPak's existing management team will own SmartPak's remaining equity. Financial terms of the transaction were not disclosed. As stated when Henry Schein first announced its agreement with SmartPak, Henry Schein expects the transaction to be neutral to its earnings per share for the second half of 2014 and full-year 2015 and accretive to earnings per share in 2016 by $0.02-$0.03.

"SmartPak is a highly regarded, fast-growing company that nicely complements our existing U.S. animal health business, and we are delighted to have completed this transaction," said Stanley M. Bergman, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Henry Schein. "Henry Schein has built a position of global leadership in the animal health market, and we look forward to continued opportunities for growth with SmartPak and across our animal health platform."

In addition to its U.S. Animal Health business, Henry Schein is the leading distributor of products and services to veterinary practitioners in Australia and New Zealand, and the leading pan-European veterinary distributor. Henry Schein has European animal health operations in Austria, Belgium, the Czech Republic, France, Germany, Ireland, Poland, Portugal, Spain, Switzerland, The Netherlands, and the United Kingdom. In 2013, Henry Schein's Global Animal Health business had sales of approximately $2.6 billion.

About SmartPak

From the feed room to the tack room, SmartPak offers innovative solutions to help riders take great care of their horses. SmartPak was founded in 1999 with the introduction of the patented SmartPak supplement feeding system.

The revolutionary, daily dose SmartPaks are custom-made for horses, individually labeled and sealed for freshness. With the success of this simple and convenient feeding system, SmartPak has continued to expand its offering of quality products, including its own line of more than 55 supplement formulas called SmartSupplements, and a wide variety of tack, equipment, and supplies. The Company has grown rapidly each year and is the largest retailer of equestrian products in the United States. SmartPak's success has been powered by a passion for delivering an unbeatable customer experience, and the Company has been recognized with a Bizrate Circle of Excellence award as well as an "Elite" rating from STELLAService. These awards recognize retailers for providing excellent customer service to their online customers. A nine-time Inc. 500/5000 list honoree, SmartPak is the only equine company ever named to the Inc. 500 list.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

In accordance with the "Safe Harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, we provide the following cautionary remarks regarding important factors that, among others, could cause future results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements, expectations and assumptions expressed or implied herein. All forward-looking statements made by us are subject to risks and uncertainties and are not guarantees of future performance. These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our actual results, performance and achievements or industry results to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. These statements are identified by the use of such terms as "may," "could," "expect," "intend," "believe," "plan," "estimate," "forecast," "project," "anticipate" or other comparable terms. A full discussion of our operations and financial condition, including factors that may affect our business and future prospects, is contained in documents we have filed with the SEC and will be contained in all subsequent periodic filings we make with the SEC. These documents identify in detail important risk factors that could cause our actual performance to differ materially from current expectations.

Risk factors and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from current and historical results include, but are not limited to: effects of a highly competitive market; our dependence on third parties for the manufacture and supply of our products; our dependence upon sales personnel, customers, suppliers and manufacturers; our dependence on our senior management; fluctuations in quarterly earnings; risks from expansion of customer purchasing power and multi-tiered costing structures; possible increases in the cost of shipping our products or other service issues with our third-party shippers; general global macro-economic conditions; disruptions in financial markets; possible volatility of the market price of our common stock; changes in the health care industry; implementation of health care laws; failure to comply with regulatory requirements and data privacy laws; risks associated with our global operations; transitional challenges associated with acquisitions and joint ventures, including the failure to achieve anticipated synergies; financial risks associated with acquisitions and joint ventures; litigation risks; the dependence on our continued product development, technical support and successful marketing in the technology segment; risks from challenges associated with the emergence of potential increased competition by third party online commerce sites; risks from disruption to our information systems; certain provisions in our governing documents that may discourage third-party acquisitions of us; and changes in tax legislation. The order in which these factors appear should not be construed to indicate their relative importance or priority. We caution that these factors may not be exhaustive and that many of these factors are beyond our ability to control or predict. Accordingly, any forward-looking statements contained herein should not be relied upon as a prediction of actual results. We undertake no duty and have no obligation to update forward-looking statements.
